

Sprint I (checking all the requirements and creating developing requirements)

- Download the Anaconda navigator for the python programming which is efficient for AI and ML based programs
- Learn to get familiar with python and conda environment which consist of Jupiter notebook and spyder development environment
- Learn required libraries as per requirements such as NumPy ,TensorFlow OpenCV and get familiar with github and git commands

